

2021 AGM Director Candidates

Anne Kinvig

Anne Kinvig first joined the CMHA NWV Board of Directors in 2017 and is a candidate for re-election to her second term. Most recently, Anne has served as Vice Chair of the Board of Directors of CMHA NWV.

Anne is a seasoned senior executive with 30 years of leadership experience, most recently in the position of Chief Operating Officer with Pacific Blue Cross. Prior to assuming this role Anne has held leadership positions in the area of Human Resources and Labour Relations, both at Pacific Blue Cross and Canadian Airlines. In addition to her strong leadership and management skills, Anne possesses a strong understanding of Board Governance and Oversight. In addition to serving on the Board of CMHA NWV, Anne also serves on Coast Mountain Bus Company, Pacific Salmon Endowment Fund Society, and Vancouver Native Health Society and also has her ICD.D certification (Institute of Corporate Directors). Anne was drawn to join the CMHA NWV Board of Directors by a desire to volunteer with an organization in her community that advocates for improved mental health services as it touches so many lives. Anne has deep ties to her community, especially through her hidden painted rocks project on community hiking trails which are a real hit with the area children!

Nick Argue

Nick Argue first joined the CMHA NWV Board of Directors in 2018 and is a candidate for re-election to his second term. Most recently, Nick has served as Treasurer on the Board of Directors of CMHA NWV, and Chair of the Finance, Audit & Risk Committee of CMHA NWV.

Nick Argue is Chief Financial Officer for the Strongman Group, a North Vancouver based commercial real estate and investment company. Nick provides strategic financial leadership and asset management for the Strongman Group and its various real estate investment companies under management. Prior to joining the Strongman Group, Nick was Senior Manager with Ernst & Young LLP in Vancouver and spent 14 years as a business advisor to clients and their Board of Directors, primarily in the real estate industry. Nick has a wide breadth of financial and governance skills developed over many years of advising global organizations. Nick has international experience from working for two years each in London, UK, and Auckland, New Zealand. Nick is a Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA, CA) and earned his B.Comm. from Queen's University. Nick is a North Vancouver resident and is passionate about improving mental health in the community. Nick is personally connected to the CMHA vision of Mentally Healthy People in a Healthy Society in remembrance of several friends who had their lives end prematurely due to mental illness. In his spare time, Nick plays hockey, golf and is a volunteer coach with North Shore Girls Soccer Club.

Jas Dhillon

Jas Dhillon first joined the CMHA NWV Board of Directors in 2018 and is a candidate for re-election to her second term. Most recently, Jas has served as Secretary and Diversity Chair of the Board of Directors of CMHA NWV.

Jas brings an integral combination of experience and heart to her role on the Board of Directors. Through her role as Branch Manager at Vancity, Jas has gained valuable experience in a people centric approach to program and service delivery. Personally, Jas, like so many in our community, has lived experience with Mental Health and is passionate about ensuring that everyone can access the supports they need and to break the stigma surrounding Mental Health. Jas hopes to support CMHA NWV to become the 'Go To' resource for mental health awareness and services on the North Shore. When she isn't busy advocating for Mental Health awareness in the community, Jas can be found diving into a good book or walking her adorable Husky named Xena!

Josh Radcliffe

Josh Radcliffe first joined the CMHA NWV Board of Directors in 2015 and is a candidate for re-election to his third term. Most recently, Josh has served as Chair of the Board of Directors of CMHA NWV.

Josh lives on the North Shore with his young family and is proud to have the opportunity to service as Chair of the Board of Directors of CMHA NWV. Josh has volunteered with the St. Paul's Inner City Youth Program as well as the Breakfast Club of Canada in the Downtown East Side of Vancouver. It was through this volunteer work that Josh recognized the need for mental health services in his own community and sought to join CMHA NWV. Currently, Josh is the Head of Business Management, Western Region, for HSBC Bank. Throughout his career, Josh has gained valuable leadership and project management skills that he believes will lead to the future success of CMHA NWV, a strong and resilient Board of Directors & a North Shore community that continues to grow together.
